Registration starts on 2 September 2015 and members of the public can take part in Zumba, Piloxing, Dance and Yoga workout sessions for a nominal fee. All proceeds from the event will go towards the President’s Challenge 2015.

The Charity Fitness Workout 2015 is Sports Hub’s maiden charity fitness event which aims to encourage Singaporeans to reach out and transform lives for the better through sports, and develop a more inclusive and caring society in Singapore – a call to action President Tony Tan Kim Yang delivered during his speech at the President’s Challenge 15th Anniversary Commemorative Dinner held at the Istana in March this year.

“Following a very successful and meaningful SG50 Carnival held at the Singapore Sports Hub, we are pleased to announce the Singapore Sports Hub Charity Fitness Workout 2015. This event promises to be a fulfilling affair, where members of the public can enjoy four hours of unique fitness programmes while giving back to the less fortunate.

We are proud to announce a 100 per cent of the participation fees collected from the event will be donated to this year’s President Challenge to underline that the Singapore Sports Hub is committed to serving Singaporeans from all walks of life. This Charity Fitness Workout event reinforces the Hub as a place for the elite to the novice – where all Singaporeans can experience sports, lifestyle and entertainment, in a community that celebrates diversity and inclusion,” said Mr Oon Jin Teik, Chief Operating Officer, Singapore Sports Hub.

The Singapore Sports Hub Charity Fitness Workout will feature four hours of fun-filled workout sessions led by the instructors from ActivFitness, Anytime Fitness Kallang Wave and Kulture.
